In this issue of The Herald, on page 4, column four, will be found the statement of the Beaver Dam Deposit Bank at the close of business June 15, 1915. This statement demonstrates that the management of this bank is in thoroughly competent hands, who have a perfect knowledge of the banking business from the smallest to the greatest details.

We sometimes receive articles giving account of social parties.

etc., but they do not state the place or community in which the affairs occurred. We are always glad to get them but must insist that the place of their occurrence be stated. We do not always have space to print the names of those who attended, but will be pleased to receive short accounts of all such affairs.

In the matter of advertising sale of land in the suit of C. A. Kelley vs. Tiny Spencer, Administratrix, found on seventh page, there should be five notes of $559.07 each instead of four as shown. In copying from the judgment one of the above named amounts was inadvertently omitted. The above amount draws interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from March 1, 1914, until paid.

Hartford has a strong team this year and should have the support of every merchant and business man in town. Our games bring out-of-town people here who trade and spend their money with everybody. We hope you will open up your hearts and pocketbooks and come to our rescue, as we don't want to see our club go down. A FAN.

Big Verdict For the Plaintiff.

In the action of W. W. Downing, Admr. of J. V. Williams vs. Illinois Central Railroad Company, tried in the Circuit Court last week, the jury returned a verdict for $7,000 in favor of the plaintiff. Williams was an assistant bridge foreman in the employ of the defendant and was killed while engaged in repairing a bridge at Rockport about two years ago. He left a widow and four small children and as the action was brought under the Federal Employers' Liability Act, the jury, as is required by that act, apportioned the damages by giving to the widow $1,000, and to each of the children $1,500.

The plaintiff was represented by Judge J. C. Graham, of Leitchfield, O'Doherty & Yonts, of Louisville, and Ernest Woodward, of the local bar.

Matthews—Sommers.

Miss Elsie Matthews, who was born and reared in Hartford, but who in recent months has been in the employ of the Government at Washington as stenographer and typewriter, was married last Wednesday, June 16, to Mr. Roy Addison Sommers, of the latter city. The young folks "stole a march" on friends and kinfolks and went over to Alexander, Va., where they were married by Rev. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of that place, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the above named date. They then returned to Washington, where they will reside.

Mr. Sommers is an army officer, occupying the position of Sergeant of the Hospital Corps, his company being stationed at Washington.

WAN WILL BE KEPT UP WITH GRIM DEFIANCE

London, June 21.—"Since the battle of the Marne the Germans have never been so confident of success as they are to-day," the Pall Mall Gazette says editorially.

"They believe Russia will be crushed before Britain will be ready. They assert when Russia is knocked out the western allies, France and England, will either be broken in turn or joined in bloody repulses until they are fought to a standstill and compelled to call the war a draw.

"The results of recent events shows that the whole struggle is now certain to be prolonged with grim vicissitudes. The new German hopes, like the old, are unlikely to be realized.

"At first sight the situation might seem to be to an extreme degree alarming."

TERRIFIC STORM VISITS KENTUCKY AND INDIANA

The storm which raged over certain sections of Kentucky and Indiana for hours early Monday morning left in its wake an almost unprecedented story of a heavy loss of life and property damage that it is believed will amount into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. A young girl in Bell county was one of the victims of the death-dealing lightning and a man in Hardin county met a similar tragic fate. A man living near Tell City, Ind., on the Ohio river, was killed as he lay in his bed.

In many instances the rain was so heavy as to be hardly less than a cloudburst. At Cannelton, Ind., a city sewer collapsed under the terrific strain and many houses and streets were inundated and there and elsewhere there were several narrow escapes from drowning.

Growing crops, especially wheat and oats, were beaten down in almost incalculable numbers by the heavy rain and hard winds. Many buildings were leveled to the earth and many others were set on fire by lightning and burned. Much livestock was either killed directly by lightning or was burned to death in buildings that were set afire by it. In many respects it was the worst storm in years.

Notice.

On Saturday night, June 26, Co. H will hold a drill in the armory at which time preliminary arrangements will be made for the annual encampment. Every member should be present.

AGONIES IN GAS CLOUD DESCRIBED BY SOLDIER

New York, June 21.—Henry Lapierre, of Chazy, N. Y., who was a private in the Fifteenth Battalion of Canadian troops, has reached New York aboard the steamer Arabic, with a description of the fighting at Ypres May 15, when his battalion stormed the German trenches. Mr. Lapierre said that of the 1,000 men in the battalion only 150 got back to the British lines. The remainder were either killed, wounded or died from chlorine gas poisoning.

Mr. Lapierre said he was made ill for several days by inhaling the gas fumes. "I felt," he said, "as if vaporous fire had been poured into my nostrils and lungs."

Prepare For Advanced Standing In Music Before Going Away To School.

If you intend going away to school and studying music you need at least a few lessons to prepare you for the new fields of work you will find there. I have made a special study of piano for the past three years—two years at National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C., and this last year at the New England Conservatory, Boston, Mass. Here at the conservatory I am studying under the head of the Normal Department and am having special instruction in teaching. I can give you a good foundation in the best and most scientific methods as taught here at the conservatory and can fit you to enter as an advanced student rather than a beginner.

I shall teach piano and voice with the necessary Harmony and Solfege lessons in addition.

I shall gladly answer any questions in regard to lessons, if you are interested.
